
Learn to Teach Patient Safety

...By understanding the principles of human factors engineering

When?

January 24-25, 2007

April 25-26, 2007

Patient Safety Curriculum (GME) Workshop

Faculty Development for Teaching Residents

- Improve patient safety culture and RCA participation in your VAMC
- Help meet ACGME core competencies
- Make system change possible through grounding patient safety in human factors engineering

Who Should Attend?

- Physician-Teachers
- Patient Safety Managers
- All others interested in learning how to teach patient safety.

Save the Date! Save a Seat!

Email PSCurric@va.gov

For general information, please visit...

<http://www.patientsafety.gov/PSC>

(no tuition or fees, ACCME /ANCC accredited, locations TBD)
